Corporate Finance training

Keeping up to date with the latest developments and market practice is an important challenge for today's corporate finance professional. We regularly provide tailored training sessions to our clients to help them keep up to date with the latest developments. Current "hot topics" on which we can offer training include:

- Bribery Act: What the new Bribery Act means for individuals and businesses given its broad scope and harsh penalties
- Cashbox structures: how and why a cash box structure can be used, whether on a straightforward placing or as part of a rights issue or open offer
- Listing options - Primary vs. Standard: when might the new "standard" listing be appropriate as opposed to an AIM or "premium" listing?
- PIPEs: is it time for private-investments-in-public-equities (PIPEs) to make a proper appearance in the UK?
- Private equity/hedge fund regulation: the latest developments relating to the proposed EU directive on alternative fund management and its implications for London
- Joint bookrunning and stabilisation: how and why transactions with multiple managers and bookrunners are structured and the rules around stabilisation
- Returning cash to shareholders: the latest developments and trends for returning cash to shareholders
- Takeover Code update: the latest issues and amendment proposals followed by a Q&A session on "what the Takeover Panel expect you to know ..."

In addition, we provide regular update training on core topics (and related market practice) which the corporate finance professional needs to have a sound understanding of, including Confidentiality Agreements, Insolvency - Disclosure Rules/trading updates, Placing Agreements, Pre-IPO funding and Rights Issues.

If you would like us to organise training sessions at your offices for you and your colleagues on any of the subjects set out above, or any other topic, please talk to your usual Nabarro contact or to Iain Newman, Head of Corporate.
