

Insurance Dispute Resolution

Our Insurance Dispute Resolution team advises policyholders, brokers and insurers on a broad range of coverage issues, often with an international dimension.

Somewhat unusually, outside of the life and pensions arena, our practice very much focuses on advising corporate policyholders as opposed to the insurance market. We have established a strong track record pursuing insurance claims and advising on policy wording across a wide range of products. Where appropriate, we draw on the expertise of our non-contentious teams in specialist areas such as environment and financial services.

We provide clear pragmatic advice, working with our clients to achieve a prompt, cost effective resolution to policy disputes, often without recourse to litigation or arbitration.

If your objectives cannot be achieved by negotiation or alternative dispute resolution techniques, we have succeeded in recovering millions of pounds for policyholders through litigation and arbitration, in this jurisdiction and overseas.
